

April 14, 2024 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my dear Jesus present in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. All glory, honor and praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ. Thank You for the opportunity to be here with You today on this glorious day. Praise and thank You for Holy Mass and Holy Communion. Thank You for the beautiful music at Mass and for being there with my family. I am grateful.

Lord, there are many souls in need of Your love. Reach souls, Lord, even those who don't realize they need You. Touch even the hardest hearts, my Savior and/or give them graces for conversion. They do not realize how beautiful You are and how much they need You. If they did, they would run to Your embrace and beg for Your forgiveness. They would rejoice in Your mercy, as I rejoice, Jesus. Lord, Your mercy is infinite, and You have said it is for the worst of sinners if they would only approach the font of Your mercy. But, Lord many have no idea. Many do not believe because the adversary of souls has convinced them they cannot be forgiven, that You will reject them. We know these statements/beliefs are lies told by the enemy of love, but they don't know this, Jesus. Reveal Yourself to them, Jesus so they will see Your glory, Your love, Your mercy. Convert souls, Lord in these dark times, please Lord. We do not know how to reach them. You know, Lord. You know each one of Your creatures intimately and what each soul needs to come to You. If there are people we can meet this week, Lord and bring You to them, guide us, Jesus. We are working in the darkness, but You are the light of the world. Illuminate us, so that when others look at us, You are all they will see. Show them Your love and mercy through us, Jesus. Lord, heal all wounds that create obstacles to Your love and grace. Heal all false beliefs with the light of truth. Save us, Savior of the world. Save us.

"My child, My child thank you for your prayers and for your desire for souls. When you pray in this way, you unite your intentions to Mine for this is My utmost desire, salvation of souls. When My children ask to be used in this way, to reach souls with My love and mercy, I will comply. Be open to My guidance, My child. Be open to My Holy Spirit and I will use you to touch souls. Be aware that there will be times when it does not appear that I have used you for this most important work. When you encounter others, and greet them with kindness and a smile, My mercy and love shine through you. Make offerings each day to Me of your sufferings, your frustrations, inconveniences, and when things do not go as you planned. When someone imposes on you, and you respond with patience and love, even hospitality, treating that person as if they were the most important part of your day, out of love for Me, many graces are exchanged and many more sent from Heaven. Be aware, My children that it is through the daily events of life that souls are reached for God. It is in the smallest events, chores, tasks, errands, and seemingly mundane events of life that souls meet Me when they meet My children. Always be love, My children, no matter what your day is like. When you are tired, hungry and burdened by concerns, give this to Me. Offer each trial to Me, My children for love of God and souls. Heaven will use these offerings in the greatest way. These sacrifices are more precious than gold, I assure you. You will be very surprised in Heaven when you realize how I used your sufferings, your penance, your love. Be gracious to those who are in need. Do not despise them, for they are your Jesus in disguise. Be filled with joy knowing that I count on you, My children to bring love to a fallen world. I choose each one of you to help build the Kingdom of God. You do not have to do this alone, nor could you even if you wanted to do so. I will provide all graces necessary. Your brothers and sisters in Heaven, the Saints will assist you. Ask for their intercession. They await your requests. Everything can be accomplished through prayer, faith and trust."

"Be cleansed of your sins through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Remain in a state of grace. Pure souls are like clean, shiny candle holders. When the candles are lit in these containers, the light shines brightly. Each flicker of the flames is like the Holy Spirit dancing for joy in souls. When you have been to Confession and I have absolved you of your sins through the priest, your souls are clean and pure. Then, My light shines brightly in and through you. Souls in this state of purity do the most good in the world. Every action, united to Me is like another Christ operating in the world. When the Father sees My children in this purity of love, you resemble Me, your Jesus. This brings the Father much consolation and glory. Glorify the Father, My Children of Light. Bring God's love to the world. In this way, you prepare the world for My coming and My Mother's Immaculate Heart will triumph. Pray. Read Sacred Scripture. Frequent the Sacraments. Prepare your hearts for the coming of My Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Prepare in a special way this year, My children. These are not just seasons or dates on a calendar. These holy days bring many graces to the world and make real change. Believe Me when I say this. My mercy is real. Trust in Me. Love and follow Me. I am with you, of this you can rest assured. The obstacles you face in the world are simply challenges to overcome, and another means of sanctification. You must come to view even the inconveniences in life as your personal path to holiness. Be patient and long suffering. Offer your sadness, your regrets, your loneliness to Me. I know what it is to be sad, to suffer loneliness, to lose loved ones, to be rejected and spurned. Unite all of this to Me, your Jesus who suffered much for the sake of love. Come, do not be discouraged. Use every opportunity I give you for love of Me and for love of souls and you will be blessed one hundred times over. I love you. Let us begin anew together.”

“My child, I hear your prayers for your family and for your friends. I know your heart and I know the suffering you are enduring. Be of good cheer, My daughter. I am using even this burden of work for souls. Thank you for being used in this way. I know the dreams of your heart and the many things you would rather be doing. I need you where you are, My child for there are countless souls in desperate need. You feel you are not doing what I want you to do, but this is a deceptive tactic of our adversary. Yes, there is darkness around you. It is at times oppressive, but I never leave you. I, the Light of the World, remain with you. I am in you and wherever you go, I go with you. You take Me to those you encounter and they encounter Me. Some will reject you, because they reject Me. Some will respond to you with anger. This happened to Me when I lived on earth. Do not allow these rejections or anger to dissuade you. Continue to respond patiently and with kindness. Be meek and mild. Be joyful regardless of the situation for you and I are friends. I am God and I allow My children to be My friends. Is this not something to be joyful about?”

Oh, yes, Lord. It certainly is. It’s truly amazing to think that the creatures of God could actually be friends with God. It would be unthinkable, unheard of had You not come into the world and lived among Your people. It is transformative, Jesus and yet I think about people who follow false religions, pagan religions, who have no concept of the possibility of being a son or daughter of God. It is a revolutionary concept; Lord and I pray that all who believe the false religions will convert to the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. May we all be one in Faith someday soon, Lord. Please God, may it be so. Thank You for Your love, Your light, Your mercy, Jesus.

“You are welcome, My (name withheld). I am with you and My son (name withheld). I am with each one of My children. Go with My blessing in the love and mercy of God. I bless you in the name of My Father and in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go now in peace. Bring My light, love and mercy to the world. Be love, My children. Be love.”

Amen. Alleluia, Lord. Thanks be to God.
