

February 19, 2023 Adoration Chapel

Hello, my dear Jesus, my King and my All! Thank You for Your presence in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. Thank You for Holy Mass and Holy Communion this morning. Thank You for the opportunity to go to Confession last week and thank You for the healing conference. Lord, You provide so many opportunities for me to come closer to You. Thank You for the many graces You give so willingly. Help me to be well disposed to receive them and to act with love in each situation and encounter with others in my life. Please bless the man I saw last week who was begging. I couldn't get close enough to him due to the traffic to give him a donation. I hope others were generous with him. Bless him, heal him in any way he needs healing and help him to get back on his feet. There are probably many, many people who are homeless in the city, Jesus. Bless them and send them what it is they need. Lord, the family I saw a year or so ago at Beggars for the Poor, I pray for them now, also. Please help them, too Jesus especially the children. It must be frightening to be homeless with two young children, Lord. I pray they are no longer homeless. Thank You for the mild weather this winter. Lord, there are many who are in need of prayer. I bring all those who are ill and those who are dying and place them at the foot of Your cross. Glance at them, Jesus and fill them with the peace and consolations that only You can give. Help them. Heal them, Lord Jesus. I pray especially for (names withheld) and all who suffer from cancer, Alzheimer's, renal and liver diseases, and heart problems. Lord, I pray also for our shepherds, all priests, Bishops and religious. Bless and protect them and give them abundant graces for holiness, courage, fortitude, trust and love. Lord, You are so humble to come to us in the bread and wine by the consecration of our priests at Holy Mass. Thank You, Lord. Help me to learn more and more about the mysteries of Your love, Lord. You are so very beautiful. You are beauty. May the whole world be on fire with Your love. Send Your Holy Spirit to renew the face of the earth! Begin with all who have suffered the terrible earthquakes in Turkey and Syria. Oh, Lord so many casualties! Bless and comfort all who lost loved ones and friends. Bring those souls to Heaven, Jesus. May they rest in peace.

"My child, My child, I was with the people who experienced the earthquake. I am with them now and I was with each one who died. I gave each person the opportunity to accept Me, to choose God before their souls came before Me in judgement. I am merciful and I desire all people to live eternally in Heaven but each creature of Mine has been given free will to freely choose Me or to deny Me. Out of My mercy and love I visited each soul with a final chance to choose Me and to do so in the light of truth. The prayers of My children who pray each day for all who will die especially those who are unprepared for their deaths provide many graces for the dying. Your prayers and the prayers of others is beneficial to souls who are dying and these graces do help Me in this work of salvation. Please continue to pray for souls in this way and do not doubt the efficacy of this simple prayer prayed with love especially when the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is also prayed for the dying. You do not need to know the souls for whom you pray for I am not limited by your knowledge or lack of knowledge. My children aid many souls through your prayers for them, even for those who are unknown to you. They die known to Me, My little one and that is enough. Be confident in your prayers because of your trust in Me. Be confident that I answer your prayers by giving each soul what they need. It is not always the graces for which you pray for others. I look at each soul and give them only what I know is needed and always what is best for each soul. Pray, My children. There are so many in the world in need of your prayers who are lost, forgotten or who have no one praying for them."

Thank You, Lord for this encouraging message and for hearing each and every prayer and answering it as is best. Praise You magnificent, benevolent Lord! Jesus, thank You for the many babies being born to people in our parish. They are beautiful signs of hope and of Your great love. Please help the fight for life in our country and in each and every state. Blind satan, my Jesus and enable Your cause for life to flourish once again (or perhaps for the first time) in our land. Jesus, please be with me on Friday (and every day) when I have the tests. I know that no matter what happens, You will take care of everything.

"My little lamb, trust in Me. All will be well. I am always with you. Do not be concerned. Be open to those you encounter and bring joy and peace to them. Sometimes I send My children to places where there is darkness or to someone in need of encouragement. I know just who to send with the right personality and empathy that will be open to souls. Do not be afraid. I also reciprocate so that My children are giving and receiving. This reciprocal openness to the mystery of love, the giving and receiving is My heavenly economy. In this way, My child no one goes without graces for love, for faith, for hope and for peace. This is throughout the Gospel message, My child, this principle of giving and receiving. It is not meant in worldly ways or of a material nature, although sometimes this occurs, but it most often occurs in the form of grace. When one gives expecting nothing in return, I give that person grace. I increase the love in their hearts and make good use of their generosity. When the other who was the recipient of your goodness, receives something, it opens their heart, even when their heart is closed. Bit by bit and I am able to penetrate them with My love. Some accept the grace from Me and some do not but each one is given the opportunity when confronted with My love given freely by another, to receive love. If they are open and receive this love I send torrents of grace to their souls. Some are not well disposed for these graces but they are still given and when they are even more open they will have access to these graces. This doesn't make sense to many who read these words because you are looking through a worldly lens. My children put on the eyes of Christ and see things through a heavenly perspective. I am God and I am a perfect Father. I give to all of My children and those who do not call themselves My children are still so by their nature. I created all people in My image. I must give graces to all out of My deep love. I long for each soul to be Baptized and to enter the family of God. Do I love less, those who have not been Baptized? No, I do not. I love them also and I wait patiently to come to the knowledge of God. I send people like you to give My love to them so they will learn of My love through others. I prompt and encourage souls to pray for others, even complete strangers, and I send graces to them for faith, hope and love. Some souls have no one in their lives to teach them about My Son, Jesus. I even give them the desire to know God, to know the source of all that is good, kind, beautiful and true. Some souls respond by seeking Me and when they seek Me, they will find Me. Every soul has opportunities for conversion. It is up to their free will to accept or reject Me, but be assured I give each one what is needed to make the heavenly choice. My children, those who continually pray for a need or needs to be met, I hear your prayers. Be open to the path I am leading you on and be awake and reflect on what is in your life that may be blocking the graces I send you. Perhaps you need to go to confession and remove sinful patterns in your life. Perhaps I want you to realize your priorities are too focused on worldly things, success, money, friendships that are ungodly. Be reflective and seek My direction. I long to give you good things, but the best gift is to be close to My Son, Jesus and to be united to Him in the Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, for it is the most efficacious way to secure your path to Heaven. That is the ultimate goal, is it not? Of course you know that it is and consequently, I will answer your prayers in the way that will bring you closer to Me. Remember, I long to give you every good gift and to advance in holiness. Examine yourself and determine what needs to be removed in order to make room for Christ and for the graces He gives. Then, you will see many prayers answered. I love you. I do not withhold Myself from you. It is you who often holds Me back and so I continue to help where you are open and wait patiently when you are not. This time of year, the Lenten Season is an opportunity to thoroughly and completely open oneself to your Lord Jesus and to examine your lives. Even those who are very close to Me have room to improve. I tell you this again because of My love for you. You will be grateful when you have advanced in holiness and come to Heaven filled with love for God. You will be very, very happy in Heaven. My children, if you suffer here or are blessed abundantly with material things, what difference does it make? It only matters that you advance in holiness and end your earthly pilgrimage by coming to Heaven. Many souls are better off not being wealthy on earth, I assure you. You will be rich in Heaven and that will be forever. Your time on earth is very brief in the grand scheme of things. Trust in Me, My children regardless of your circumstances. They do not dictate your happiness, your joy. Many poor people (materially) are very holy and they are filled with joy. They share the little they have with others and also share their love for God. They will be richer in Heaven than the rich businessman who shares a small percentage to help the poor and likes a lavish life on earth. Even if this one goes to Heaven, the poor one who gave generously and did so with sacrificial love will have a much higher place in Heaven. That is the economy of charity and love, My children and it is also My perfect justice. So, be of good cheer. I am with you and I always care for My children. Trust in Me regardless of your needs. Bring each care to Me and I will direct you. Live for Me, My children. Do all that My Son asks of you. Live the Gospel. Frequent the Sacraments. Read and study Holy Scripture. Pray and pray with faith and hope. Trust in God. Have mercy on others and above all things, be love. Bring the love of God to others and you will be bearers of My Son, the Light of the World. Pray for peace in the hearts of mankind, My children. Evil desires to reign in hearts, but I desire the reign of love to be embraced in the hearts of My children. I desire all people to come into the family of God. Pray, dearest children of Mine, pray. Go in peace, little one. Thank you for this meeting today. Thank you for writing My words.”

Thank You, Lord, God Creator and Father of Mankind. I love and adore You, my King and my Father. Amen! Alleluia!

Thank You, Jesus for allowing this exchange of love with God the Father. How loving and Fatherly He is!

“My child, My Father and I are one. We thank you and all who are faithful. We send graces to all who are doing the Will of God. The Holy Spirit gives many gifts to those who are united to the Blessed Trinity. Each one has gifts to share to buildup the Kingdom of God. Share these gifts generously. Do not be concerned that these gifts will be used and you will have nothing left to give. This is a fallacy. The more you share with others, the more I will give you to share. There is an abundant supply of graces and gifts My children and you will never be able to out give God. Be generous with your time, your love, your gifts. Help others. Encourage them in this time of sadness and darkness. Be peace and mercy. I assure you that I am with you-really with you. I love you. Go now in My peace. I bless you in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Be joy, My children. Spread My love.”

Amen, Jesus! Thank You, Lord. I love You!

“And I love you.”
