

April 28, 2024 Adoration Chapel

Hello my dear Jesus present in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. It is good to be here with You in this place. Thank You for Holy Mass and Holy Communion. Thank You for the priests who celebrate Mass and administer the Sacraments for us, Your people. Thank You for my family members who attend Mass, Lord. I am grateful when we are together for Mass. Please bless those who are not with us and bring them back to the Church. I am also grateful for the dear friends who are also family to us, Jesus. You are so generous with Your love! Lord, You have worked so many miracles of healing in my family. I am still amazed that (name withheld) is able to attend Mass, drive and almost back to 'normal'. Thank You, Lord! I pray for all who are wayward and have left the Church to return soon, Jesus. I pray also for those who do not know the love of God. Bring them home to Your Sacred Heart. May all find their refuge in You. Jesus have You anything to say to me today?

"Yes, My child. Continue the life of prayer that I invite you to. The world and souls are in great need of prayer. Fast and do penance for those who are distant from Me. Offer every suffering and trial for those who have not experienced the love of God. My child, souls are at stake. Many perish without the light of love in their hearts. Many souls want nothing to do with God and choose hell, the lake of fire for their eternal destiny. Many prayers, fasting and penance are needed in this Age of Disobedience. Offer Masses for those who are away from the Faith. I am asking My faithful ones to do these things for the least of My children. There is much need, My Children of Light!"

"I ask all My children to be strong in your faith. Be willing to persevere in faith no matter the darkness. Keep your eyes on Me, your Jesus no matter what occurs. Live the Gospel message, My children. That is what is required, beloved sons and daughters of Mine. Be love and mercy to those you meet. Be hospitable. Share with others. There will come a time when My children will open their homes to many in need and you will share all that you have. You who do this willingly, graciously will be rewarded in Heaven for you recognize people are more important than material goods. I bless you with temporal goods so that you can enrich others' lives and show them the benevolence of God. Much is required of those to whom much is given. These words from Sacred Scripture are truth and light. It is right for parents to expect much from their children who are capable of great things, is it not? It is also right for God to expect much from His children who have received many blessings from God. I equip you all My children with that which you need to fulfill the purpose and the calling I give to each one. This is true, My children. I do not set Mine (children) up for failure and therefore I give each of you what is needed to be successful in the mission and purpose of your lives. Therefore, I expect much also because I am with you. I give you every grace needed, every talent, every holy desire, your gifts and yes even the material goods needed. If you do not know your mission, pray for this to be revealed. However, even if it is not revealed right away, know that I will reveal it to those who ask, but in the right time. Pray to follow My Will, Children of Light. Remain faithful to all that was handed down to My Holy Church through the Apostles. Remain true to the teachings of My One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church. Stand firm on this foundation, My children. It will never crumble under your feet, but false teaching will. It always does. The truth remains. You, My Children, remain in My truth. Remain in My Will. Frequent the Sacraments, My children. Make frequent and regular confessions so that you remain in a state of grace at all times. From Scripture you know about the times that are coming; the Abomination of Desolation. My children false teachings will be abundant all around you. You must not be deceived. Know your Faith, My little children. Then, you will not be readily deceived. Listen to My voice. My sheep know My voice and follow Me. Follow Me, My children. Do not follow those who pretend to be shepherds but have no regard for My children. Look at their fruits, My children. Discern and pray. Read Sacred Scripture. Read the teachings of the Church. Frequent Holy Mass and Confession. Pray, fast and do penance and you will not be led astray. Remain in the bosom of the true Church which is My body. I will be your refuge, My children. My Mother and I will protect you from error. Be at peace and be joyful. This time is drawing to a close and a new time will soon come to pass. A new day will dawn when God brings about the Triumph of My Holy Mother Mary's Heart. You, My Children of Light are her army of little children who confound the enemy of souls by your love, your peace, your joy in the midst of darkness. Radiate My love, My children. You who are children of My heart. I love you. I will never leave you. I am the Good Shepherd and I never leave My sheep. I will defend you from the wolves who wish to devour My children. These wolves not only seek to take souls to hell, but are also planning to destroy God's creation. They have already done much damage, for they hate all that is good because they see the hand of God the Father and Creator in all that is good. The evil demons hate the souls of My children for the soul is created in the image and likeness of God. They can't stand loving, holy souls and therefore be loving, holy souls. Pray for graces to love especially in the face of adversity. Pray for graces to be holy especially in the midst of such darkness. I will provide all that you need. Speak with Me. Give Me your concerns, your trials and your burdens. Bring all to the foot of My cross and entrust them to Me. My children you speak about this but I ask that you put this into practice. Doing something is always more difficult than mere words. Once you begin this spiritual practice, you will begin to see how freeing it is to give Me your burdens. Not just to carry them for you but to resolve the problems, to answer your questions and to care for your loved ones. Follow Me, My children. All will be well. Be open and receptive to My direction; My grace. Pray, rejoice and be merciful."

"My children things will change rapidly when the evil one makes his decisive move. Be prepared spiritually as I have directed and I will see to the rest. My children who have offered your homes for refuges, I thank you for this generosity. Be prepared soon for the time is near that will be considered in hindsight, the refuge times or the Time of the Refuges. These times will be challenging but I will give you every grace needed. These times will be considered the Age of Saints for heroic love will be required. All will be well, I assure you, and even though it will be difficult, you will see many miracles and forge friendships in Christ like in the days of the early Church. You will all become family, or shall it be better understood that you will realize your family consists of those in the Church. Yes, you know this now, for by My death and resurrection and through Baptism you are truly in the family of God. But never is this more evident than during times of suffering and persecution. I am revealing to you the benefits and the joys of these coming days so that you will understand I will give you what is needed and even what you desire, but you must remain faithful to God and to the Church. Be love to all. Pray for your enemies, the enemies of God. Pray for their conversion. Remember, My children how much I love you and that I will never leave you. That is all for now, My children. Follow Me, your Jesus. Be love. Be joy. Be mercy. Remain with Me. The very gates of hell will not prevail against My Church."

"I bless you, My (name withheld) and My (name withheld) in the name of My Father, in My name and in the name of My Holy Spirit. Go in peace and spread My peace to others. I love you."

Thank You, Lord. I love You! Jesus, please protect the Deacons who will be ordained Priests and the Seminarians who will be ordained Deacons. Guard them and guide them, Lord.

"Yes, My child. I will. Thank you for your prayers."

Amen! Lord, Amen!
